DR. B. F. EAGER BURIED SUNDAY

Died in Louisville Saturday of Cancer of The Face.

FIFTY-NINE YEARS OLD.

Was For 15 Years A Physician in The Western Asylum.

Dr. Benjamin F. Eager died in Louisville Saturday morning after an illness of two years, of cancer of the face. Dr. Eager left this city in 1904 to become Superintendent of Beechurst Sanitarium and a year later developed the disease that caused his death. More than a year ago his condition became such that he could not continue longer in his profession, and he had been patiently awaiting the end that was inevitable.

The body was brought to this city Saturday night and Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock; funeral services were held at the Baptist church. Mr. Millard A. Jenkins offered prayer and read a part of the fourth chapter of Thessalonians. He then induced Rev. W. L. Nourse, who told of the high esteem in which Dr. Eager was held by the people of the city, of all denominations. Rev. J. N. Prestridge, a former pastor of the church and a lifelong friend of Dr. Eager, conducted short and appropriate services dwelling upon the strong traits of Dr. Eager's character—cleanliness, unselfishness, fearlessness and loyalty.

The burial took place in Riverside Cemetery about noon. Dr. Eager was born in Jefferson County, Miss., July 18, 1843. He was educated in the school of his native state and graduated from the Ohio College of Dental Surgeons in 1872 as valedictorian of his class. He decided though to become a doctor of medicine and in 1877 graduated from the Louisville Medical College. Noticing his name in the list of graduates, Dr. J. D. Clardy, of Newstead, wrote to him telling him that his neighborhood needed a doctor and asking him to come to Newstead. This he did and lived in Dr. Clardy's home for four years and soon built up a fine practice.

In 1881 he removed to Hopkinsville and three months later became second assistant physician in the Western Asylum of which Dr. Jas. Rodman was Superintendent. In 1889 he became first assistant under Dr. B. W. Stone and held that position until 1896. His connection with the asylum covered a period of 15 years. Upon retiring from the asylum, he re-entered general practice in Hopkinsville for eight years, a part of the time in partnership with Dr. T. W. Blakley. He was married June 21, 1888, to Miss Carrie Downer, a sister of Mr. J. W. Downer, of this city, and she survives him with three children—Benjamin F. Jr., Louise and Henry D. Eager.

Three brothers and two sisters also survive him. These are Rev. Geo. B. Eager, of Louisville; Rev. John H. Eager, a Baptist missionary in Italy; Prof. Eager, of Clinton, Miss.; Mrs. L. P. Trotter, of Hattiesburg, Miss.; and Mrs. J. M. Joiner, of Cisco, Tex.

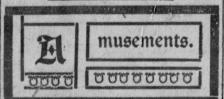

Dr. Eager was a member of the Baptist church here for 23 years and for many years was a deacon. At the time he removed to Louisville he was chairman of the board of deacons and in every respect a recognized leader in church work. In his daily life he was a living exemplification of the highest type of Christian character, his piety deep and consistent, his kindness of heart a part of his nature; he was generous and loyal to his church and his friends; he was honest and upright in all his deal-others.

In his church work he was qualified for leadership. His religion was always consistent, his purse was always open; he was gifted in prayer, punctual in his attendance and always ready to do his part. As a doctor he stood high in his profession. His career as a public official was honorable and useful.

His death causes general sorrow in this city, where so many years of his life were spent.

Among those from a distance who attended his funeral were, besides his own family, Dr. Geo. B. Eager and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rodman of Louisville, and Frank N. Downer, of Bowling Green.

After an almost unprecedented all-summer run at the New Theatre, the Dandy Dixie Minstrels began its regular season at Washington, D. C., on August 4th, starting a tour of every important city in the United States and being booked solid to June 30th, 1908. After this remarkable tour will have been made the same organization intact will visit Europe, Asia, South Africa, Manila and the Hawaiian Islands, returning to San Francisco. Besides being equipped with a most remarkable pretentious production of scenery, costumes and electrical effects, the Dandy Dixie Minstrels travel in a handsome $20,000 Pullman car—"The Dandy."

The "Dandy Dixie Minstrels," world renowned for their unique interpretation of the sweet old time songs of the plantation, levee, battlefield, and all that's good in modern music, will sing "Dixie" in the true old time darkey fashion at their performance announced for Dec. 31 (tonight) at Holland's Opera House. Prices—Lower Floor, 35, 50 and 75c. Balcony 25 and 50c.

QUAIL SEASON.

Hunters Take Advantage of Last Day.

Many sportsmen of the city are taking advantage of the last day during which the law permits the hunting of quail. The open season expires today and after Dec. 31 the birds cannot be killed until the middle of next November. Birds have not been unusually plentiful, though some hunters have had fairly good success during the past six weeks.

CLOSE TO 1,000

Arrests Made by the Police
During the Year 1907.

The police force during the past year were a busy lot of men most of the time. The arrests for each month are given below. The figures were taken from the "state" in the office of the Chief of Police:

January	85
February	60
March	74
April	86
May	72
June	44
July	71
August	76
September	114
October	120
November	86
December	72
Total	961

The above was copied from the record Monday morning, leaving two days for work.

During the month of December up to above time, fines aggregating $632.50 were assessed in the city court for various offenses. During November the fines amounted to $627.

NEW COLONELS

Will Be Turned Loose On State Friday.

There will be a general shake-up in the administration offices at Frankfort Friday, Jan. 6th. Gov. Willson will appoint his staff and the clerks now in the different departments will be thrown out of their jobs. It has been eight years since the last lot of Colonels received their titles and the people had begun to forget the Colonels were still abroad. We know of no chance of Hopkinsville getting a new Colonel. Our supply is a little short, but we can get along very well another four years.

WILSON-BUCHANAN.

Popular Young Couple Married in Clarksville.

Neal Wilson and Miss Queen Buchanan surprised their many friends by the announcement of their marriage in Clarksville last Thursday night. The young people left here at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and returned at 8:20 at night. They have taken board with the family of Mr. Jas. Skarry, on East Ninth street.

Mr. Wilson is proprietor of a restaurant on Virginia street and is a well known young business man.

His bride formerly lived at Sebree and is day toll operator for the Home Telephone Co. She has been here about a year and is exceeding popular with everyone.

The affair was not an elopement.

RUNAWAY

Horse Attracted Crowd On Main Street.

A horse driven by Herbert Richards ran away Saturday night and landed against a telephone post at 10th and Main streets, the impact throwing him to the ground but not seriously injuring the animal. He lay as quiet as death for a few minutes and never tried to get up, the harness had been broken and the wheels were loose.

As Mr. Richards was trying to get the horse up, he was thrown out and the horse ran away.

He was not injured.

There Is a Controversy

Going on between the exponents of Hot Air, Hot Water and Steam Heating Apparatus. Doubtless it will continue to go on without final settlement, because each system has its advantages, there is, however, no argument that will convince hundreds of people who are now using

The Weather.

For Kentucky—Fair and Colder
Tuesday.

Thaw's second trial will begin in New York next Monday.

E. G. Stedman, a New York lawyer, committed suicide because of the loss of his entire fortune of $1,000,000 by the failure of a building company.

Mrs. Elizabeth McManaman died in Waukegan, Ill., last week aged 104 years. Only a short time ago, her neighbor, Mrs. McGinty, died at the age of 106.

Henderson wants the summer meeting of the Kentucky Press Association, the Kentuckians would like to see the meeting held at Cetralian Springs early in June, before the rush of guests begins. Capt. R. S. Pool could make the boys have the time of their lives, and Hopkinsville would like to get up an entertainment for one night.

The American Tobacco Co. has closed its warehouse at Frankfort, Ky., and quit the rebranding business. Whether this is in anticipation of a deal with the Society of Equity, or from an inability to get enough unpledged tobacco to keep going, is not known. No explanation was given.

The Powers trial is now being argued and will go the jury tomorrow. The Frankfort Journal gives this prediction:

"A lawyer who has been a regular attendant on the Powers trial and F is neither connected with the section nor the defense, sizes up this in this way: 'The best evidence produced in any trials of the guilt of Powers been adduced at his trial, and he is that a verdict of death should be, but a hung jury on politics will most likely be the result. Then he thinks that Powers demand another trial, immediately swear Judge Morris off the Gov. Wilson will be called a point special judge, application will be made and grant will be the end of it. It is pretty plausible program. In your hat and see if it is cut out."

Outside View.

I on Hopkinsville ended very between Meacham, editor of the Ken- d Record respectively. We see those two gallant exchange olive branches a hardly know which one reverted to the principles. They both seem to be in favor of the As- tro-soldiers, and against night riders. This may between the two there sum where all con- cern poor may have prop- and enjoy the fruits of on County Times.

Clothes and Travellers, &c. Most Effective Combination.

One is sorry for the dandies of day, though their clothes fit so well and are so smart. The custom prescribes a dark or uniform hue, and no lace, no velvet (above all, not in coat collar); no slashes, puffs and yandekings; no pearls and gold; no gales and azure. The common trouzers are shapeless things, and, for perfection, you need two pairs every day. The stockings are always checked, and, though you may wear brilliant hose with knickerbockers in the country, glorious waistcoats are rarely seen except in the windows of tailors' shops at Oxford and Cambridge. The dandy can only cultivate immaturity, neatness and perfection of fit. One sees Ladysmith, when the glass was raised, in a skeleton, but was as spruce and neat, I have been told, as ever they showed in the park. They cultivated self-respect, like Stendhal, the celebrated novelist, who was said to have been the only man that shaved every day in the dreary winter retreat from Moscow. This is the dandyism which we admire, the separation of personal self-respect exhibited in Julius Caesar, Cleverhouse and Monroe, combining his lovelocks, like the Three Hundred of Thermopylae, on the morning of his shameful death. He went to the glori "like a bridegroom to his丧葬, and the world trembled at the hair by which we live." We have an immortal tenderness for the great, the wise, the brave, who have died dangers as they lived, gallant hearts and steady gentlemen.—Century Magazine.

MADE HIS BLUFF STRONG.

Trouble Was the Horse Would Not Be Reasonable.

Charles H. Wilson, the superintendent of Alfred G. Vanderbilt's remarkable stables, said at Newport of a groom he had discharged: "The man was a stiff." He pretended to know all about horses, when in truth he could not tell a Hackney from a cow. We soon found him, however, case was like the fake blacksmith. There was a chap who thought blacksmithing looked simple and easy, and so, being out of work, he decided to have a try at it. He went to a smith and asked for a job. "Well," said the smith, "you are a strong, likely-looking fellow. What do you have?" "Eleven years," was the prompt answer. "All right, I'll try you," said the blacksmith. "Shoe that mare while I go home to dinner." The smith, on his return from dinner followed, and said to the new hand: "What, haven't you got that mare shod yet?" The bluffer bit his lip, flushed and replied: "I can't get her confounded foot in the vice."

Liquor She Fleeted In.

On their arrival in New Zealand, according to London The Daily Mail, English people drink the health of the vessel which had brought them safely to their destination. One of the gentlemen who was asked to join in this ceremony replied: "No, I am a sailor. You are a strong, likely-looking fellow. What do you have?" "Eleven years," was the prompt answer. "All right, I'll try you," said the blacksmith. "Shoe that mare while I go home to dinner." The smith, on his return from dinner followed, and said to the new hand: "What, haven't you got that mare shod yet?" The bluffer bit his lip, flushed and replied: "I can't get her confounded foot in the vice."

Poite English Shop Girls.

With you would import more English shop girls," said the inveterate shopper, according to the New York Press. "I came across one yesterday. I was buying a little white evening dress. There were about a hundred styles to select from and I think I chose the one in the middle. It was that after an hour, when I had at last selected one, I said to her with an apologetic laugh: 'We've been an awful lot of trouble to you, haven't we?' I knew what I wish I'll never come again." Indeed, I will not," she answered. In her pretty English way, "It was no trouble. None at all. It has been a pleasure to wait on you."

TINNESES FROM TRIGG

in The City Yesterday
Before Fire Marshal Mott Ayres.

PARENTS OF GEO. GRAY.

Approaching Term of Court is Now Attracting Much Interest.

Adj. Gen. P. P. Johnston returned to the city Saturday night, and was here Sunday and Monday. He expected to go to Frankfort last night to make his formal report of the inspection he has made of the various markets of the Black Patch.

A large number of witnesses from Trigg county were in the city yesterday in response to summonses issued by Fire Marshal Mott Ayres to testify in the investigation he is now holding. Among them were James Gray and wife, parents of George Gray, who was killed; Perry Noel, Esq., Creekmoore, Dr. J. H. Lackey and others of the same neighborhood.

These witnesses and other Trigg county people came as far as Grassy on a special train and arrived over the I. C. at 8:35 a. m. Col. Ayres was busy all day yesterday examining the various witnesses, one at a time, in his rooms at Hotel Lathan.

THE SPECIAL COURT.

The near approach of the term of trial court is causing much interest to be taken in the matter. It is said by authority that Judge Thos. Cook has expressed a willingness to let the Governor prefers that the court be held by officials entirely removed from local influences. County Attorney Jno. C. Duffy has proposed to Commonwealth's Attorney Penny P. Smith that they too decline to act, and let Gov. Willson appoint a special attorney pro tem, to carry out his own ideas in his own way. Mr. Smith said he would take the matter under advisement and announce his decision Wednesday.

The grand juries drawn for the regular term in February have been summoned for the special term Jan.

PNEUMONIA

Caused The Death of W. C. Davis Saturday.

W. C. Davis died at his home on North Main street last Saturday, of pneumonia, after an illness of but a few days. Funeral services were conducted in the afternoon Sunday by Dr. Millard A. Jenkins at the residence and the interment to place in Riverside Cemetery. The deceased is survived by his wife and six children, three sons and three daughters, all grown. Davis was for many years a member of the Concord Baptist church, about two miles North-east of the city. He had lived in the city but a few years.

OMSWEE DINNER

Young Ladies' Club Gives Fifth Annual Banquet.

The fifth annual banquet of the Omswee Club was held Saturday night at Hotel Lathan with covers laid for 26. Those present were:

MEMBERS AND ESCORTS.

Miss Sallie George Blakley and Mr. John Stites, Miss Mary Jones and Mr. Guy Starling, Miss Jean McKeek and Mr. Louis Ellis, Miss Joy Herndon and Mr. Ben Moore, Mrs. A. B. Anderson and Mr. Anderson, Miss Jeanie Graham and Mr. R. M. Fairleigh, Mrs. Ben S. Winfree and Mr. Winfree.

GUESTS AND ESCORTS.

Miss Caldwell, Louisville, and Mr. John P. Thomas; Miss Christine Catherers, Elkhorn, and Mr. Dennis Shaw; Miss Atkinson, Earlington, Mr. Emmett Jones; Miss Woodall, Nashville, Mr. Gus Moore; Miss Corine Bas, Pensacola, Mr. Hugh Nelson; Miss Elsie Gant and Mr. Dan Owsley.

The banquet was served in the Ordinary and was a progressive course dinner. A feature was a Christmas tree upon which there were presents for all of the party. Mr. B. S. Winfree acted as Santa Claus.

The affair was greatly enjoyed by all who were present.

SCHOOL TEACHERS

Have Not Received Pay for December.

Many of the teachers in the county public schools were doubtless disappointed in not receiving their pay for the month of December. Those who did not have a reserve on hand were unable to make Christmas as happy for their friends as they intended.

County Superintendent W. E. Gray was seen yesterday. He has no idea when his check will come. He has written to the authorities at Frankfort in regard to the matter but has not received information that gives him any idea as to how long it will be before he will be able to pay the county teachers. As soon as he receives the money he will let the disappointed teachers know when they can call at his office and get their salaries.

BIG FIRE

At Garrettburg Last Sunday Night.

Garrettburg, this county had perhaps the largest fire in its history last Sunday night.

The storehouse occupied by G. W. Allen, dealer in general merchandise, was burned to the ground with contents.

The dwelling house of Mr. Allen was also destroyed.

The stock of goods was insured for $2,000. We could not learn whether or not Mr. Allen carried any insurance on his household goods or whether the owner of the buildings carried any insurance.

The store house and the building occupied as a residence by Mr. Allen belonged to Mrs. Dr. Wilson.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but from what our informant said there is reason to believe it was the work of an incendiary. The fire was discovered a little before or about 12 o'clock. A high wind was blowing at the time and it was impossible to check the fire until the two buildings had been destroyed.

Value of Insurance.

Fires originate in unexpected places and from unknown causes. Doubtless some one who reads this article will sustain the next loss.

Are YOU insured and have you the best insurance your money can buy?

The Giant Insurance Agency, (Incorporated,) the leading fire insurance agency in the city, represents ten multimillionaires companies and settles their losses promptly and equitably and guarantees to sell their policies at as low rate as any company doing business. Office in First National Bank building. Both phones.

DEATH

Was Cause of Buck Grocery Co. Closing Yesterday.

Grape was on the door of the Buck Grocery Co.'s store yesterday. The doors were closed on account of the death of a brother of Mr. T. C. Davis, who lived in Clarksville.

WEATHER CLERK

On a Lark and "Raised the Wind"

Friday, Saturday and Sunday were beautiful, spring-like days, but the weather clerk gave the crank a turn Sunday night about 11 o'clock and gave us thunder, lightning, wind and rain. Yesterday morning a 30-mile gale was blowing from the west and there was a very marked fall in the temperature. We have had far less good weather up to date than for several years, fices having been necessary nearly every day since the middle of October. Up to yesterday we have had no real cold weather.

HERE AND THERE.

In the face of financial troubles in the closing quarter the year 1907 was a record-breaker for industrial development in the South. Texas leads in the establishment of new industries and Kentucky ranks ninth, with 371.

The big tobacco barn of W. Z. Thompson, a prominent planter of Fayette county, was destroyed by fire Thursday night and 20,000 pounds of tobacco burned.

Tracks around the barn lead Mr. Thompson to believe the fire was the work of incendiaries.

HALF MILLION.

In Gold Dumped on Streets of Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Canvas bags containing gold and silver coin to the amount of half a million dollars were scattered about the corner of La Salle and Adams streets for a short time last night, but they were soon gathered up and taken to a place of safety under the protection of a squad of police. An express wagon on its way from the Northwest to the La Salle-street station with a load of specie guarded by Barney Terback of Buffalo, N. Y., and Henry Kerker, of Chicago, was struck by a street car.

Terback and Kerker were thrown to the streets and the bags of specie on top of them. Terback received a fracture of the skull. Kerker was badly bruised by the heavy bags of money falling on him. Both men were taken to a hospital.

MAN KILLED

Had $3,000 Sewed In His Coat.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—The Chicago police found $3,023 sewed in the lining of the working coat of David Ehler, a section hand employee of the Chicago and Northwestern road, who was struck by a train and killed in the yards.

The source of Ehler's wealth is a mystery, as not even his wife knows that he possessed any money.

Both his wife and his son are small.

INFERNAL MACHINE

Sent Through Post Office at Erie, Pennsylvania.

Erie, Pa., Dec. 24.—While distributing Christmas bundles in the South Erie postoffice this afternoon an employe became suspicious of a package, the end of which was broken open, and upon examination it was found to contain an infernal machine so constructed that the opening of the box would cause an explosion that would have undoubtedly killed all persons near it and set fire to everything in the vicinity. The package was addressed to Archie Carr, 2208 Cherry street, and had been mailed in this city.

The following inscription was on the inside: "You may perhaps find the cover will catch a little when you open the box, but pay no attention to it. Merry Xmas."

HOME-COMERS

On Big Steamers Beaten out of Christmas Dinner.

New York, Dec. 29.—A fleet of seven Transatlantic steamers—the Campania, Cedric, St. Louis, Pannonia, Pretoria, Corona, and Minneapolis—came creeping into port day bearing scars of battering seas which delayed them a day in their trip across the Atlantic.

Leopards, as G. A. H. Dennington has once observed a native some smelling salts. After going through extraordinary contortions the native went away, returning soon with another native whom he compelled to make acquaintance with the sult. The two struggled until the sult was overpowered, and then the native reached each new sufferer, though, delight and amazement not to let him know that he had beaten him.

An English clergyman confesses in the London Tribune that once, relying on his hearers' fund of humor, he made a joke at a public meeting, and was sorry for it very soon afterward.

He was the speaker at a meeting in Corwall, and at the close of his speech was compelled to make a speech in the Cornish dialect.

"Well," he replied, "that is easy enough to understand, because I was a minor until I was 21 years of age."

"Very praiseworthy, indeed!" cried out a gentleman from the audience; and nobody seemed to realize that every man was a minor until he was 21 years of age."—Youth's Companion.

At the end of the week the clergyman received a copy of the local newspaper containing an account of the meeting. "In response to a vote of thanks, made by the reverent gentry, the reverend gentleman explained that he himself worked in the Cornish mines until he was 21 years of age."—Youth's Companion.
